REDUCED NIGHT COURT SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED FOR ORANGE COUNTY

Santa Ana - The Orange County Superior Court will reduce its weekly night court schedule to only one night court session per month, effective March 18. Night court for traffic and small claims cases only will be available the third Tuesday of each month.

“The Court had to reduce its night court schedule as one of many belt tightening measures due to the State’s financial crisis and its impact on the court’s budget,” said Presiding Judge Frederick P. Horn.

Night court for traffic and small claims matters will be available at the Central Justice Center in Santa Ana, the Harbor Justice Center - Laguna Hills Facility, Harbor Justice Center - Newport Beach Facility, the North Justice Center in Fullerton, and the West Justice Center in Westminster.

More information regarding traffic court is available at the Court’s website: www.occourts.org.
